Innovative Birthday Ideas A Pop Party or Write a Song

What sort of party are you giving your children this year?

Will it be a swimming, bowling, a magician? What about teenagers?

What about a Pop Party or the chance to Write and Record your Own Song as a gift?

A fantastic idea for a party - an innovative idea for a present!

“Pop Parties are a great way to celebrate a Birthday”

The Pop party starts with a rehearsal of your chosen song. Lyrics are printed out so the singing starts as soon as everyone has arrived. Graham then runs through the track a few times until everyone is comfortable with the melody and lyrics. It's then time for action! The birthday guests are recorded in the live room wearing professional headphones and singing into a top quality professional vocal microphone. After all the vocal tracks have been recorded the studio engineer mixes the track adding special effects to enhance the recording. Then it's time for a photo session, and this colour photo is used for the front cover of the final CD. There is normally time to record an extra bonus track, Happy Birthday and Birthday messages are also recorded and added to the final master making a mini Album for you to keep.

A separate room, decorated with balloons and a 'Happy Birthday' banner, is provided for the birthday tea, you just supply the food and drinks. So, you can celebrate with all your friends. This really is a fun packed two hour party suitable for kids of all ages! A two hour Pop Party costs just £175 for up to 15 people including 2 free colour souvenir CD's. Extra CD's are £2 each.

“A gift idea tailored to the budding songwriter”

This is a unique gift package for anyone who has a tune whistling around in their head, or some special lyrics or poem that perhaps could be crafted into the perfect song for someone special. The session starts with a preproduction period, during which you will bounce your ideas around with Graham, explore different melodies, tempo, song structure and lyrical ideas to create the perfect song. Graham will then enhance your performance using different instruments and production techniques. The final mix will then be mastered to a special souvenir CD. Just £199 for a 4 hour Session including 3 CD's.
